

Day School Items of the Month:

Elmer's Glue Sticks

Children & Family Ministries

Monthly calendars and important flyers will be available regarding Children's Ministry in the Day School hallway, right outside of the choir room.

We are quickly approaching Halloween night, which means I am making final plans for Trunk or Treat. As of Tuesday, October 24th (one week out), I am still in need of 13 trunks, about 10 blankets and lots of candy. Please consider helping out with this wonderful event that serves our church and our community. Trunks will need to begin set up around 5:30 on October 31st, and typically give out candy from 6-8pm. Thank you so much for your candy contributions, your commitments to help that evening and for your prayers! As I teach the children on Wednesday nights, we serve because of all that Jesus has done for us...we serve to show gratitude!

The children will be preparing for their Christmas presentation during the month of November, during our Wednesday night time together, with a few exceptions. If you would like for your child to participate, please plan to have them here at 6:30 - 8:00 on Wednesday November 1st, 8th, and 15th. Our final practice will be Thursday, December 7th from 6:00-6:45pm. Our Christmas presentation will be December 10th, during the 11am service.

Operation Christmas Child Boxes

November 12, 2017 is Dedication Sunday. Please join Samaritan's Purse in providing Christmas joy and Christian teaching to underprivileged children throughout the world. Pick up your empty boxes in the Narthex or outside Jill's office. Income tax receipts are also outside Jill's office. No toothpaste or candy this year.....it causes delays in customs. Contact Samantha Kauffman at 336-267-6256 if you have questions or need assistance. Thanks in advance for your support!

How does Stephen Ministry benefit pastors?

Pastors share that Stephen Ministers deepen, expand, and extend the care giving capacity of their congregations. A team of Stephen Ministers, together with a pastor, can provide ongoing care to more people than the pastor alone.

Our Mission is to follow Jesus, make disciples and transform the world.
We are about making connections — connecting people to God and to each other.

Jesus The Methodist

I have a theory that Jesus was a "Methodist." My reasoning behind that statement is that Jesus had a clear message, and He had a clear method.

Both the message and the method of Jesus are recorded in the Gospel of Matthew. Take a look at these verses:

¹⁷ From that time on Jesus began to preach, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near."

¹⁸ As Jesus was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon called Peter and his brother Andrew. They were casting a net into the lake, for they were fishermen. ¹⁹ "Come, follow me," Jesus said, "and I will send you out to fish for people." ²⁰ At once they left their nets and followed him.

{Matthew 4:17-20}

Jesus had a simple message (see Matthew 4:17): "The kingdom of heaven has come to earth. Entrance into God's Kingdom requires a change in your heart, a change in your life direction, and a change in your allegiance."

Jesus also had a simple method. He invited people to follow Him (see Matthew 4:19).

Jesus spent His ministry declaring that the kingdom of God had come to earth in Him. He invited people to follow Him and thereby align themselves with God's kingdom here and now.

Today we call the message and method of Jesus "disciple making." The message of Jesus for the church today is to invite people to become disciples, or "followers" of Jesus. The method of Jesus for the church today is to make disciples of all the people, in all the nations, of the world. That is the meaning of Jesus' "Great Commission:"

¹⁸ Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. ¹⁹ Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, ²⁰ and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." {Matthew 28:18-20}

I recently read an article written by Phil Stevenson about the basics of disciple-making in the church today. In his article entitled, "5 Principles for Effective Disciple-making in the 21st Century," Stevenson says:

1. Effective disciple-making must be relational: It has to have an element of life on life. People are disciplined in relationship, not just by acquiring knowledge or content.

2. Effective disciple-making must be biblical: The word of God is the central basis for making disciples. A disciple is a follower of Christ. How better to understand who you follow than to read about who He was, how He thought, and what He did.

3. Effective disciple-making must be applicable: If a disciple-making process does not impact how people live out in the world, it is merely religious ritual. Disciples bring the Kingdom of God into the realms they have been placed. They need the foundation to do this.

4. Effective disciple-making must be accountable: Accountability is often overlooked in the disciple-making process. It undergirds spiritual growth by demonstrating that discipleship is a team effort, not just an individual pursuit.

5. Effective disciple-making must be reproducible: Reproducing other disciples is often the missing piece of disciple-making. Genuine disciple-making has happened when other disciples have been multiplied. The going and making of disciples is a lifelong process.

How are you doing in your discipleship? Are you following Jesus by accepting His message and living out His method?
